VOL. XI. PITTSBURGH, SATURDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 8, 1873. NO. 50

The Daily and Weekly Commercial.—NEWSPAPER DECISIONS.—1. Any one who takes a paper regularly from the Postoffice—whether directed to his name or another's, or whether he has subscribed or not—is responsible for the payment.

2. If a person orders his papers discontinued, he must pay all arrearages, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and collect the whole amount, whether the paper is taken from the office or not.

3. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers or periodicals from the Postoffice, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

Remittances must be made in Money Orders, Bank Checks, or Drafts, if possible. When neither of these can be procured, send the Money in a Registered Letter. The present Registration system is virtually an Absolute Protection Against Losses by mail, and all Postmasters are obliged to register letters whenever requested to do so.

FORT WAYNE, November 7, 1873.

The trial of John Droegmyer is now in pro- ss. Droegmyer is the City Treasurer, and charged with the defalcation of six thou- d dollars. His line of defense is that he e a bond to be fixed by the City Council not less than double the amount of the duplicate; this the Council never ; again, in 1871, he gave a bond ditional for the honest and faithful dis- arge of his duties until his successor was cted and qualified; he was his own succes- at the last election, hence the old bond is l good; he can hold his old bondsmen, as y never signed the new bond; if so the city l not be the loser. The case is creating at excitement here.

THE MONEY STRINGENCY.

Reduction of Wages—Workmen Discharged—Mills Closing and Running on Short Time.

BOSTON, November 7.—The Manchester, N. H., printing works will do no more printing until the 1st of December. About five hundred people are thus thrown out of work. The mills have shut down this week, and it is understood they will run only four days per week hereafter. The mills of the Great Falls Manufacturing Company will be run on three-fourths time on and after next Monday. The Amesbury woolen mill commenced yesterday running on half time. The Salisbury mills are running three-quarter time. The Merrimac Hat Company, of Salisbury, will shut down to-morrow for the month of November. Owing to a reduction of their wages, a large number of laborers on the Maine Central bridge, at Waterville, have quit work, leaving very few employed at that point. The Maine Central Railroad has just discharged 300 workmen.

NEW YORK, November 7.—Two hundred and thirty men were discharged this week from the lumber yards in Greenpoint; one hundred laborers at Long Island city; one hundred cabinet-makers in the same city; four hundred men from the Brooklyn City works; and three hundred men from the Prospect Park improvements. The rubber-comb factory at College Point, L. I., have reduced their time to four days per week, employing six hundred men.

LATEST ELECTION RETURNS.

MISSISSIPPI.

JACKSON, MISS., November 7.—Returns come in very slowly. Only twenty-three counties have full reports, which give Ames a majority of 26,500. Those counties always go Republican, and when the official returns are received from the other counties the majority will, perhaps, be somewhat less than now estimated. The vote was very light everywhere. The Republicans have a good majority in both branches of the Legislature.

MICHIGAN.

ISLAND RAPIDS, MICH., November 7.—From the last figures received at the Democrat office this evening the vote stands: Williams' majorities—Allegan county, 650; Ottawa county, 88; Ionia county, 112. Total 850. Comstock's majorities—Kent county, 557; Muskegon county, 269. Total 826. Yet to hear from: Towns of Spencer, Kent county, Casnovia, Blue Lake, Dalton, Fruitand and Moreland; Muskingum county, Lee, and Casco, Allegan county.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, VA., November 7.—In 78 counties and cities heard from, Kemper's net gain on Walker's majority is nearly four thousand.

WASHINGTON.

War Department Estimates.

STRENGTH OF THE ARMY.

Recommendations of General Sherman.

CAPTURE OF THE VIRGINIUS.

Execution of General Ryan.

Appointments in Consular Service.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 7, 1873.

The estimates of the War Department for 1874 are fifty-six million, three hundred and twenty thousand, of which three millions are for river and harbor improvement, and one and a half million, for fortifications. The aggregate increase is ten millions. The insufficiency of the combatant force of the regular army, with the increased demands upon the military, is at times the cause of serious embarrassment to the government. This was especially the case during the past year in the Modoc war and on the Mexican frontier.

Strength of the Army.

On October 31st, 1873, the aggregate force of all branches of the army was 29,500 men, viz: Ten regiments of cavalry, 8,147; five of artillery, 3,206; twenty-five of infantry, 13,582; and engineer battalion and other non-combatants and recruits, 3,970. The authorized strength of the organizations under the law is engineer battalion, 350; infantry regiment, 595; infantry company, 59; artillery regiment, 748; company of artillery, 59; battery of artillery 94; cavalry regiment, 1,001 and cavalry company, 83.

General Sherman

favors an increase of a company of infantry to the standard of cavalry. This, he thinks, could be done without increasing the expense of the army proper by excluding the Engineer battalion, general service men on clerical duty, the Ordnance Department at West Point, and signal detachments, ordnance and commissary sergeants, from count in the combatant force, and placing them in the same class with hospital stewards, which are not included in the 30,000 authorized by law. This would increase the fighting force by twenty-five hundred men.

Execution of General Ryan.

A dispatch received here from Havana confirms the capture of the Virginius and the summary execution of Gen. Ryan and other officers of the Cuban army. Gen. Ryan passed last winter at Washington, and played quite a prominent part in political and social circles. His friends regret his untimely end. The government can do nothing, as he was engaged in aiding the enemies of a nation at peace with the United States.

WASHINGTON, November 7, 1873.

PROMOTIONS IN CONSULAR SERVICE.

J. Meredith Read, at present Consul General in Paris, has been promoted to be Minister Resident to Greece, vice John Francis resigned. A. T. A. Torbel, at present Consul General at Havana, has been promoted to be Consul General at Paris, vice Read promoted. Henry C. Hall at present Vice Consul General at Havana, has been promoted to be Consul General at Havana.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, November 7, 1873.

TWEED'S TRIAL—JUDGE DAVIS LOSES HIS TEMPER.

Judge Davis and Mr. Bartlett, of counsel for Tweed, at the trial to-day had another tilt. The Judge had decided a juror, after a long examination, competent, when Mr. Bartlett rose to comment on the admissions by the witness tending to show bias. Judge Davis peremptorily refused to hear another word on the subject, and in the course of a dialogue, Mr. Bartlett said: "As your Honor will not hear an argument after decision, would you inform us when next a juror is called that you will hear an argument before decision?"

Judge Davis, angrily: "Sit down."

Mr. Bartlett: "I refer your Honor to Justice Chase and many other authorities."

Judge Davis, (rapping with his gavel) "Sit down, sir, sit down; be cautious, sir, or I will refer you to a still later case."

Mr. Bartlett—"I did not hear your Honor."

Judge Davis—"Another repetition of that or anything of that character will fall down upon you in a way that may not be so pleasant."

The juror was then peremptorily challenged by the defense. The reference to Justice Chase was understood to be to that Judge's impeachment for irregularities on the bench. The call of the panel was then continued until it was exhausted, when the Court adjourned to Monday next, three jurors having been obtained.

THE FUNERAL OF GENERAL RICHARD DELAFIELD,

United States army, took place from Trinity church this afternoon. The pall-bearers were Generals Newton, Varnum, Abbot and Webb. The remains were taken to Greenwood.

ANOTHER INCIDENT IN THE GOODRICH CASE.

John Ruchty, proprietor of a cutlery factory in this city, has commenced suit against the Brooklyn detectives for false arrest and imprisonment, which were induced by the false information furnished them by the notorious Lucette Myers, charging him with complicity in the Goodrich murder.

THE HUNTINGTON OUTRAGE.

The Grand Jury of Suffolk county, Long Island, to-day found indictments against several parties for the murder of Charles G. Kelsey, only one of whom, Rudolph Sammis, has been arrested.

FUNERAL OF LOUIS GAYLORD CLARK.

The funeral of the late Louis Gaylord Clark took place this afternoon at Upper Piedmont. The pall bearers were Parke Godwin, Manton Marble, R. H. Stoddart, Erastus Brooks and Hugh J. Hastings.

RAILWAY MATTERS.

Pennsylvania Railroad—Scrip Dividend—Col. Scott Not to Resign.

PHILADELPHIA, November 7.—The Board of Directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad to-day declared a scrip dividend of five per cent., redeemable on the 1st of March, 1875, with the option on the part of the company to redeem it at any time after six months. The scrip is receivable at par for unpaid instalments on stock allotments, which can be turned into cash at once, as there will be a demand to meet the instalments due from the 1st to the 28th of this month. President Thomson submitted a letter from Vice President Scott stating that if it was desirable in consequence of his connection with the Pacific Construction Company, his resignation as First Vice President would be submitted. The Board unanimously resolved that it was not advisable that there should be any change in Col. Scott's relation with the company.

The Corpus Christi and Rio Grande Railroad.

CORPUS CHRISTI, TEXAS, November 7.—The Corpus Christi and Rio Grande Railroad Company organized here to-day under a charter of the State of Texas. The line connects this place with Sareda, and besides controlling the Rio Grande trade will exercise a powerful influence in checking border depredations and opening to settlement the rich lands of the Nueces Valley. Parties are being placed in the field, and the construction of the road will be rapidly pushed. Representatives of Northern capitalists are here, and Col. Thos. H. Robb, late President of the Frontier Commission, has accepted the presidency of the road. Much local enthusiasm is excited, and is powerfully stimulating immigration and the trade of this place.

East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railway Trouble.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., November 7.—The railroad lock continues. An attempt of the company to send out a freight train from this city this morning failed, owing to the engineer being prevented by force from taking his engine out of the round house. The company has sued one hundred strikers in the Circuit Court for $500,000 damages, and the Sheriff has served the notices this evening. The company has also sued another hundred strikers in the Chancery Court and obtained an injunction restraining them from obstructing the business of the company. An attempt will be made to start freight trains to Bristol and Chattanooga to-morrow morning.

FIRE RECORD.

Mills Burned.

EVANSVILLE, November 7.—Elles Canal Mills were burned at one o'clock this morning. Loss, $20,000; insurance, $12,000.

Burning of an Oakum Factory.

CHICAGO, November 8.—The oakum factory of John Davis & Co., corner of Diller and McKenzie streets, caught fire this evening from the friction of the machinery, and was entirely destroyed. Loss fifteen thousand dollars; no insurance.

Extensive Livery Stable Destroyed.

ST. LOUIS, November 7.—The extensive livery stable of James H. Thornton caught fire at 10:45 to-night, and was almost totally destroyed. All the horses and carriages were saved, but a large lot of buggies, sleighs, harness, and other property were burned. The whole establishment, including the building, is valued at $100,000. Stock insured for $20,000. The building, which was owned by Thornton & Pierce, was insured for $48,500.

OIL CITY.

Suspicious Death of a Colored Man—Slight Fire—Accident to a Young Man.

Special Dispatch to Commercial.

OIL CITY, PA., November 7, 1873.

A colored man named Lew Williams started out gunning this morning. It is supposed he went with a white man, name unknown, as they were seen walking close together through town. Williams was discovered about one o'clock in the woods near the city dead, with a terrible gun shot wound in the head near the temple. His gun was found close by with both barrels discharged. The dead leaves near the gun were burned, as were also Williams' whiskers, showing that he must have laid the gun down on the ground and, after placing himself in a reclining position, pulled the trigger in some manner. It is generally supposed that Williams committed suicide owing to late domestic infelicity, but many are anxious to find the white man who was with him and who, up to six o'clock this evening, had not been found. Probably something will come to light to-morrow.

An alarm of fire this afternoon was caused by the explosion of some chemicals, which were being steamed under Griffith's drug store. The fire was extinguished without damage to the building, but a young man named Reynolds had his leg burned.

COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company are making such additions to their grain elevators at the steamship wharves in Philadelphia as will increase their loading capacity to 14,000 bushels per hour.

A ton of pure gold is worth $602,799 21; a ton of silver, $37,704 84. A cubic foot of gold weighs 1,218.75 pounds; a cubic foot of silver, 656.25.

The exportation of gold from Australia this year, up to the 31st of August, amounted in value to $31,078,245, an increase of more than one-third over the value of the exports in 1872.

The Lackawanna Iron and Coal Company published a notice to its employees that, owing to the impossibility of collecting cash for iron already sold and delivered, or to sell for cash, its monthly payments in cash would cease on the 1st inst. Those who desired to work could do so, and the company would insure them supplies for their families, to the extent of their wages, and those who did not accept the regulation could stop work.

In the majority of cases the men employed at works owned by the coal carrying roads in the Lehigh and Schuylkill regions started on the eight hour system on the 1st inst., with reduced wages. The impossibility to get cash is the assigned reason for this in all these cases.

If is estimated that not less than 30,000 persons have been thrown out of employment in Philadelphia since the crash commenced. The Press suggests that the employed and employers should confer together and if possible agree on some terms to continue work as far as possible at reduced rates, to prevent the suffering that must follow if no such arrangement can be made.

The Lebanon Courier says: "The ore mine on the farm of Rev. C. Bucher, in Heidleberg township, is in successful operation, and conducted by Mr. B. under a lease held by the Minersville Coal and Iron Company, who have invested about $5,000 in putting up a large engine and other improvements.

The rolling mill and tube works of Seyfert, McManus & Co., on South street, Reading, have gone into operation again, and will give employment to about six hundred men.

A sewing machine company has purchased a factory at Jersey City, and will give employment to 400 or 500 hands.

Hokendauqua has three furnaces idle, just blown out; Catasauqua has two; Bethlehem one; Phillipsburg one, and there will probably be a number of other stacks blown out soon, unless something turns up to help the money market.

It is estimated that Chicago has 70,999 persons engaged in manufactures; that an aggregate of $179,831,000 is the yearly product of their labors, and that upwards of one-half the entire population of the city is already supported by the manufactures of what most people are still disposed to regard as "an exclusively commercial city."

At Cedartown, Ga., on the Selma, Rome and Dalton Railroad, there are three iron furnaces in full blast. The Etna, Tecumseh and Stonewall employ about 2,000 hands, to the larger portion of which they pay $100 a month each as wages. The capital invested in the work is $1,000,000. Hon. James Mason, of Virginia, is a large stockholder in one of the works, and is now spending some time in the rich mineral regions contiguous to his works.

Manufacturing establishments at Manchester, N. H., are running on full time and with the usual amount of help, except the Manchester Print Works and Mills. The Amoskeag will run as long as they can sell goods for what they cost, and the Stark Mills are working nights to fill orders in their seamless bag department. What are known as Manchester Mills and Manchester Print Works—one and the same corporation—have not yet emerged from the financial troubles they have had the past year.

The Syracuse Standard says that the prospect for the winter in that city is, on the whole, cheering. The glass works are doing well, and working up to their full capacity. Cook, Carpenter & Coleman, manufacturers of furniture, organs and church work, who employ 100 men, began running eight hours on the 1st inst., with a reduction of ten per cent. in wages. Sanford & Ross, manufacturers of picture frames and mouldings, employing 130 men, have run seven hours since October 20th. If the dullness continues they will reduce still further, and perhaps stop entirely. Cobb, Herrick & Co, engine and boiler manufacturers and general machinery, are running on full time, and keeping the usual number of men at work—sixty. The Bradley Manufacturing Company are running about 100 men, only a few less than usual. If collections are fair for the next thirty days, they see no reason why they cannot run full time all winter. Frazier & Burns, manufacturers of harness trimmings, have been compelled to discharge twenty-five men, and fear they must dispense with more. Thus far the manufactory has been run on full time. The Sweet Manufacturing Company have discharged three-quarters of their men, and the rest are working eight hours. George Barnes & Co., who make mowing-machine knives and employ 200 men, are running full time, and have more orders than they can fill. The panic is not felt except in collections. The Williams Mower and Reaper Company closed work about a week ago. Some 100 men were thrown out of employment.

There is very little call at present for hides in the West at any price, says the Hide and Leather Reporter, and tanners seem determined to hold off, anticipating still lower rates. One would hardly suppose that such a staple article as green hides would have fallen almost 50 per cent. in little more than a month, but such is the case. In September the best country green hides, trimmed, salted and swept off, sold in Chicago at 12 to 12½ cents for light, and 11 cents for heavy hides. When the panic came on there were no sales made for ten days; then they started at 9 and 10 cents, and on the first day of November they were weak at 8 and 9 cents for very best selections. City slaughters trimmed and salted, were offered at 7½ and 8½ cents on the same day, and ½ cent less was bid. Green butcher hides, same date, were 5½ and 6 cents, but there was talk of reducing them this week to 4½ and 5 cents. These are very low rates, certainly the lowest we have known for many years. During the first year of the war hides brought about 4 to 4½ cents in the West. Just when bottom prices will be reached will be hard to tell, but it should be the tanners' turn to make a little money now after working for almost nothing for three years past.

The New York Herald of Thursday is of opinion that "in one respect we are better off than in many former panics or times of financial distress. Our money is all good. There is not the fear before the eyes of the poor man that the dollar he does handle may turn to worthless paper in his pocket. Provisions are plentiful, and one result of our troubles will be to put down the prices of the necessaries of life, and thus to make living cheaper. All these are encouraging facts, and when we remember that the present crisis has been brought on by over-trading and by rash speculation, evils which are only temporary in their consequences, we can see no reason for serious alarm. The future is safe and promising; all we have to do is to take care of the present and to do the best in our power to relieve the distress which some failures and a general reduction of business must necessarily bring upon the laboring classes.

The New York Star says: The city is full of servant girls unemployed and in distress; and yet the silly things insist on $14 to $16 per month wages. This sort of thing must stop sooner or later.

Weekly Sales of Steinways—Bulletin No. 66.

The following is the weekly sale of the celebrated Steinway pianos, as reported by Messrs. H. Kleber & Bro.:

Mrs. H. Salisbury bought a Steinway Square piano.

Dr. L. Oldshue bought a Steinway Square Grand piano.

W. M. McKnight, Esq., Monticello Furnace, bought a Steinway Upright piano.

R. P. Crawford, Esq., bought a Steinway Square piano.

James Mulholland, Esq., bought a Steinway Square piano.

H. Keating, Esq., bought a Steinway Double-round piano.

E. B. Frew, Esq., Oil City, bought a Steinway Square Grand piano; etc.

Nothing can stop the sale of the Steinway pianos. The difference in the piano business now and before the crisis is simply that buyers concentrate more and more upon the Steinway manufacture. Money is becoming too valuable to be expended on any but the best and most durable of pianos—the Steinways. Messrs. Kleber & Bro. are doing as fine a business as ever in the Steinways.

ZANESVILLE.

Serious Illness of a Prominent Citizen.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

ZANESVILLE, O., November 7, 1873.

Austin A. Guthrie, a well known citizen of Zanesville, formerly Internal Revenue Collector of the Thirteenth District, is not expected to recover from the effects of a paralytic stroke.

STATE NEWS.

In Johnstown, on Thursday morning, a lad of twelve years, named Ferguson, "playfully" pointed a revolver at a young woman employed as a domestic in his father's house, and pulled the trigger. Result, a ball through the young woman's cheek and palate, inflicting a probably fatal wound.

On Tuesday last a man named Ferber was run over by a train near Bell's Mills, Blair county. He was removed to the County Poor House, but died the same evening.

Charles McFadden, of Trout Run, Clearfield county, was killed on Saturday last by a tree falling upon him while he was working at a logging.

The new Presbyterian church at Jennerville, Somerset county, will be dedicated tomorrow.

At a meeting of canal boatmen in Mauch Chunk, on Wednesday, to take action in regard to the collection of license fees and tonnage tax on boats carrying coal from the Lehigh region, resolutions were adopted denouncing the action of the government in this matter, and a committee was appointed to institute legal proceedings to recover the moneys collected by the customs officers.

Mr. John Evans, of South Coventry, Chester county, aged 78 years, is still working at his trade, walking a distance of three miles to and from his work each day.

The health of the Hon. John Hickman is such that he was able to be in attendance at court in West Chester, this week.

The Educational Home for Boys, at Forty-ninth street and Greenway avenue, Philadelphia, will be dedicated this afternoon. The corner stone of the institution was laid by the late Gen. Meade, in June last. The total cost of the building and furniture was about $50,000.

The Rev. David T. Carnahan was installed as pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, South Oil City, on the 5th inst.

A thin seam of coal was discovered near Cherry Hill, Erie county, last week, which promises to prove profitable, as a workable mine.

The Erie County Teacher's Institute will hold its next meeting at Girard, early in December.

Clinton Chapel, of Pittsfield, Warren county, was standing in a ravine among some low bushes, a few days ago, when an unsuspecting fox came so close to him that the old gentleman caught the animal by the tail, and beat its brains out on the ground.

Hon. B. F. Morgan, just elected President of the Board of Police Justices in New York city, formerly resided in Reading.

The police of Pottsville are making raids on the faro dealers and other gamblers in that city.

The Philipsburg Journal says: Two children of Stephen Waugh were buried on Tuesday in one grave. Mr. Waugh has now buried twelve of a family of fourteen children.

Mr. Moses Thompson killed a 200-pound deer in a wheatfield within a short distance of his house, three miles from Altoona, on the 5th inst.

During the great fire in Harrisburg on Wednesday two painters, engaged in painting the outside walls of the Lochiel House, stuck to their work while the building was burning.

A four-year-old son of Chester W. Fenton, of Richmond township, Tioga county, was drowned in a mill-pond on the 1st inst.

The Germantown Daily Chronicle entered upon the sixth year of its publication on the 6th inst.

Mr. A. J. Burgess, of Lackawannock township, Mercer county, believes that sheep raising is profitable, and backs his claim by giving his own experience. From twenty-eight ewes he sold wool, $55; lambs, $113; has on hand thirteen lambs, valued at $110; one pelt, 50c; total, $278 50. Average, $9 95. The ewes cost 184 50; leaving for feed and care a balance of $166.

The Wilkesbarre Record of the Times says: "Street Commissioner Johnson keeps our streets clear, but his promptness or that of his men resulted in a good joke on one of our River street citizens a short time ago. The citizen spoken of had paid a man for hauling a load of ashes in front of his house to use in filling up his yard. A few moments afterwards the city team came along and hauled it away, for which said citizen received a bill. To lose the load of ashes was bad enough, but to have to pay for hauling it away was adding insult to injury.

Christian Sieber, of Farmanagh township, Juniata county, has discovered a vein of fossil ore on his premises, located near the line of the proposed Selinsgrove and North Branch Railroad.

City Surveys.

The Survey Committee of the City Councils held a meeting yesterday afternoon, Mr. Fleming in the chair, when the following business was transacted.

The City Engineer was ordered to make the following grade surveys: Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth streets, Carnigie, Keystone, Duncan, Celandine, Camella and McCandless avenues, Kent, Lewis and Kendall streets.

The plan of Ormsby and Phillip's plan of lots in the Twenty-seventh ward was approved.

The sub-Committee on Sylvan avenue reported that they had found an error in the profile and that they could not come to a conclusion as to change of grade until a survey was made and the grade marked on the ground.

The report was accepted, the committee continued and the engineer directed to make the proper surveys.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

Supreme Court—Full Bench.

The argument in the Hays and Briggs lateral railroad case was continued yesterday in this Court, and occupied the greater part of the session, Mr. Robert Woods spoke on behalf of the defendant in error, and Mr. George P. Hamilton closed for the plaintiff in error.

Atkins & Haight, vs. George W. Coffin. Error to the District Court of Allegheny county. Argued by Weir for plaintiff in error and Brown contra.

Quarter Sessions—Judge Stowe.

The first case called yesterday was that of Julius Steiner, charged with aggravated assault and battery on his wife, Rachel Steiner. Mrs. Steiner testified, in substance, that she and her husband had been keeping a saloon on Middle alley, Allegheny; that her husband had sold out, and was about to give possession to the purchaser; that on the night of the 27th of August last, about midnight, her babe, then about twenty days old, waked up; that she soon after heard a noise down stairs, made by some person walking about; that she got up, threw some clothing around her shoulders, and started down stairs to see what was the matter; that when she got into the kitchen she found her husband there; that he applied an approbrious epithet to her, and said: "I have sold out this house and you have got to get out here, or the constable will put you out," that she replied "you are drunk now, and had better go to bed, and say what you have got to say in the morning;" that she turned to go up stairs again, when he struck her a blow on the neck, and knocked her down; that while lying prostrate he kicked her on the right cheek, with the heel of his boot, and also on the right side; that she got up, seized the kitchen poker, and attempted to strike him with it, but was unable to do so, as her side hurt her badly; that he raised a chair to strike her, when her little daughter aged nine or ten years, who had been waked up by the noise, came into the room, and that Steiner put down the chair and walked out. The little daughter corroborated the mother's statement, and said that the next day her mother's eye was all black and blue. On cross-examination the child was asked if she had not cried out to her mother, on entering the kitchen, "kill the loafer," but she emphatically denied having used such language. A witness who had seen Mrs. Steiner at the Alderman's office, testified that she had a very bad eye from the effects of the blow. Steiner testified in his own defense, and told a rather wonderful statement, alleging, in substance, that he went home that night, turned off the gas, as usual, and was going up-stairs, humming a little song, when he was met, in the dark, on the stairway, by his wife, who, without the slightest provocation, struck him over the head with a poker, and knocked him insensible; that he fell down-stairs, and was dragged by the hair of his head some twelve feet across the kitchen floor by his wife, who gave him three or four more blows over the head; that he got a chair to defend himself from her blows, and just then his daughter came in, shouting, "Kill the loafer!" that his wife then desisted her attack, and he went out. He stated, in the most positive terms, that he had never laid a hand on his wife! When he contradicted his daughter, as to the use of the expression above quoted, she burst into tears and wept bitterly, at the same time shaking her head most significantly. The scene was truly a painful and affecting one—the father attempting to brand the daughter with perjury, and she reiterating her denial in a manner much more expressive than words. Mr. and Mrs. Lutz were also called for the defense, alleging that they were waked by the noise, looked out of their window (their house being near Steiner's) and saw Mrs. Steiner "charging" on her husband, and he trying to ward off her blows. These witnesses proved too much, because both asserted that the gas was burning, while Steiner himself has testified that he put it out before going up stairs. Judge Stowe, in charging the jury, stated that the offense, if any, was only simple assault and battery, although the circumstances might be aggravated enough. Legally and technically, it was not "aggravated," whatever it might be otherwise considered. If the jury believed the statement of the prosecutrix, they must necessarily discredit that of her husband, and vice versa. But they could only convict of simple assault and battery. The jury, after a short absence, found a verdict of guilty of simple assault and battery—thus showing that they believed the wife and daughter, and disbelieved the defendant. Sentence was deferred.

A nolle prosequi was allowed, on motion of the District Attorney, in the case of the Commonwealth vs. John Voelker, indicted for assault and battery, on oath of Charles Berton.

A nolle prosequi was also allowed as to Samuel M. Fulton, charged with assault and battery by Samuel Staley. The defendant paid the costs in each case.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. Alexander Harper and Ann Harper, indicted for forcible entry and detainer, on oath of Joel L. Bigham, was next tried. The defendants had been dispossessed of a tenement on Mt. Washington, by the Sheriff, and afterwards entered it and took possession, there being some dispute about the title. It was in evidence that the house had not been locked up, after the dispossession, and there was no forcible entry. There was a forcible detainer, however, and the jury so found.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

The Hospital Site—Convention at Washington, D. C.

A special meeting of the Board of Health was held yesterday afternoon, Dr. Gross in the chair.

The City Solicitor was present and stated that he had asked the meeting for the consideration of a draft of the plot of ground recently purchased by the Board in the Thirteenth ward for a hospital site.

Mr. Bigelow stated that he thought it inadvisable in the Board to make requisition in Councils at this time for money to pay the purchase on account of the tight money market. He suggested that the requisition be postponed until January, when Councils can make provision for the money.

On motion it was decided to accept the suggestion of the Solicitor.

On motion, the Health Officer was instructed to procure a thousand certificates for returns of births, marriages, and deaths.

The Chairman read a circular from a committee of the Board of Health of Washington, D. C., suggesting a National Sanitary Bureau, to be organized by Congress. The approval of this Board is asked to the project. The Committee further suggest a memorial to Congress, to be signed by sanitarians and scientific men favoring this great national movement.

Another circular from the same quarter was also read, proposing a convention of representatives of Health Boards in the city of Washington on the 21st day of January, 1874.

The President was instructed to report the hearty approval of the Board to the proposed Sanitary Bureau.

On motion, a committee of five, of which the President is to be chairman, was ordered to attend the convention.

The Daily Commercial.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1873.

A CHICAGO paper has an article on "The attempt to make something stand on nothing." So had the Post, the other day, when, on the basis of Tuesday's elections, it tried to figure out the future national ascendancy of the Democratic party.

THE exports from Philadelphia in October were $3,204,209, against $2,234,737 in the same month of 1872. The exports from Baltimore, for the same period, show an increase of $800,000, and those from Boston show an increase of over a million.

THE people of Monroe county, New York, have taken our advice and re-elected JARVIS LORD to the State Senate, under a certificate from his physician that a re-election would most certainly kill him. If it fails to accomplish that result, then the physician will have to be killed.

SOMEBODY, with a waggish twist in his composition, on returning empty-handed from a long day's gunning, observed that he had had a splendid time, and hadn't harmed anything. That is the condition of the Democracy with regard to the election of last Tuesday, and we are really glad to see them so very happy.

THE banks of New York City lent $12,000,000 to the firm of GRINNELL & Co., with which to speculate in stocks; whilst the merchants in that city were compelled to sell their paper in the street at whatever they could get for it. The merchants were, beyond all question, the most worthy. Why were they not preferred?

PITTSBURGH has an abundance of musical talent and culture, both of which are considerably above the average amateur standard. In view of this fact would it not be possible to organize a series of concerts here for the benefit of the poor during the ensuing winter? Let the members of the various musical societies think of it.

DISCUSSING the financial complications surrounding the Texas Pacific Railroad Company, the New York Evening Post says: "It is deserving of mention that none of the bonds of the Texas and Pacific have been sold; so that the suspension involves losses only to the wealthy men interested in the project, and their creditors, who are also people of means."

THE result of the election in Illinois turns out better than was hoped for. The Chicago Inter-Ocean publishes returns which show that the Republicans not only held their own in most of the counties, and that against considerable odds, but that they made large gains in a number of towns, a thing not looked for in the comparatively unimportant election of last Tuesday.

IT seems at present almost impossible for Marshal BAZAINE to escape conviction of the grave offenses of which he is being tried. Five Marshals of France have been tried for their lives by regular tribunals, and all five were found guilty and executed. In these, as possibly in BAZAINE'S case, political rancour, rather than any absolute desire for justice, was perhaps the leading motive of the prosecution. Marshal NEY was the last of the five.

TAMMANY signalizes its return to power by choosing representative men. The member of Assembly elected by it in the Second district of New York city is Mr. WILLIAM P. KIRK, whose claim to this recognition of his merit consists in the fact that when holding the office of School Trustee, in 1864, he received commissions from teachers who obtained appointments and promotions. His election by Tammany was singularly appropriate.

THE old fogies in New York asked the people to say, by their ballots, at the late election, "We have been entrusted with the right to elect judges, but we are unfit to exercise it; therefore, we give it back to the Governor." The people didn't say it; however; and the old fogies are amazed, as well as very sorry. They were fools ever to think that the people could be got to cast such a terrible reflection upon themselves.

WE FIND this paragraph going the rounds:

When the successor of Chief Justice Read shall have taken his seat on the Supreme bench, the Court will be composed of four members from the West—Justices Agnew, Williams, Mercur and Gordon. The East will be represented by Judge Sharswood, of Philadelphia, alone.

Judge MERCUR is from Bradford county. When did that county move west. Overhaul your geography, and when found make a note of it.

THE suspension of MCVAY & Co., of this city, yestesday, was a very great surprise; for, having weathered the storm so long, it was hoped it would be able to go on securely, now that the stress is well nigh over. The announcement was received with many expressions of sympathy and regret, for the young men who compose the firm are all careful, deserving and energetic, as well as men of the strictest integrity of purpose. We hope to hear that they will be able, eventually, to extricate themselves from all their difficulties.

ENGLAND stands upon the threshold of a new political experiment. There has never yet been a general election by ballot held in that country; but if Parliament is dissolved at the next session, as will most likely happen, there will be a most exciting struggle, after our own fashion of voting by ballot, for the election of a new Parliament. The recent extension of the franchise has added more than a million of new voters to the constituencies. How these will vote behind the screen of the secret ballot remains to be seen. Direful predictions are made in some quarters as to its calamitous effects.

THE more thoughtful of the European journals are devoting considerable attention to the proceedings, or rather to the objects, of the International Law Congress lately assembled at Brussels. The proposition, which had its origin in the United States, contemplates the establishment of a tribunal which shall be to the whole family of nations what our Supreme Court is to our Union of States; putting them all on the same footing before a bar of justice and equity. Its realization would certainly be one of the grandest triumphs of American ideas and institutions.

THE New York Journal of Commerce prints an interesting tabular statement, showing the movement in the leading articles of produce at that port during the last month. The deliveries have been liberal on the whole, and of some articles largely in excess of previous seasons for a number of years. Of wheat, the aggregate receipts thus far this year, are nearly twenty-seven million bushels, over twice the amount received there last year. The market is behind in corn, as compared with the unprecedented total of last year, but nevertheless fully up to the average supply. The outward movement has also been unusually brisk, and gives indications of progressing satisfactorily for the balance of the year.

FURTHER accounts concerning the industrial situation and outlook in various parts of the country, are of a reassuring character. Of course the depressing influences of the monetary stringency are still widely felt; but a large amount of work is yet being done, some of the great industrial centers showing a remarkable degree of vigor in their respective manufactures; while, even where work is slackest, the employer and the employed are recognizing their mutual dependence, and endeavoring, by mutual concessions, to tide over the difficulties with as little loss as possible to each. All the manufacturers are showing a desire for the welfare of their employees, and some of them express a willingness to continue operating, even without profit, if they are assured that serious losses will not be incurred.

NOT THAT. A Washington correspondent intimates that, in view of the falling off in Internal Revenue receipts consequent upon the late panic, "it is not improbable that some slight increase of taxation" may be made by the next Congress. This, of course, is merely an expression of personal opinion; nevertheless, the representatives of the people may just as well understand, once for all, that the taxpayers are not, at a period like the present, in a mood to tolerate any increase of their burdens. The decrease in the revenues will not seriously affect the receipts for the current fiscal year, and whatever the deficit is, can probably be rendered good by economy, retrenchment and the stoppage of leakages. Certain it is the coming Congress can not afford to follow in the footsteps of the last in the matter of appropriations. Instead of voting eleven millions more than the departments asked, it must reduce the expenditures at every possible point. The people demand this; and will hold everybody concerned in the matter to a strict accountability.

NO DOUBT the condition of the laboring classes in Great Britain is bad enough, at the best; but that is no reason why BRADLAUGH, in his declamatory harangues in this country concerning the cost of the English monarchy, should conceal any portion of the truth. Yet, while he is very careful to set forth the fact that the expenses of the British government have increased upwards of fifty per cent. during the reign of Queen VICTORIA, he is just as careful to conceal the equally important fact that there has been a steady reduction of taxation during that whole period. For instance, in 1837 the value of imports into Great Britain was £53,000,000; while in 1872 it was £[illegible]03,000,000; the duty collected on the larger sum being less than that collected on the smaller. Moreover, he makes no mention whatever of the fact that a large proportion of the laboring classes of that country are to a very considerable degree responsible for their privations. Statistics show that the expenditures of English people for alcoholic drinks were last year twice the amount credited to depositors in the savings banks, largely in excess of the gross national revenue for the same period, and fifty millions of dollars more than the sum expended for bread of all kinds. Mr. BRADLAUGH may possibly be a very earnest and sincere reformer at heart; but the method of proving it is not calculated to impress [illegible] with the belief that such is the case.

PHILOSOPHY OF THE LATE ELECTIONS

The Democrats are going wild over the few occasional victories they have won, this year. If there are any thinking men among them it may be well enough for them to remember that such victories, however gratifying they may be for the moment, count for nothing in the long run.

In 1835 the Whigs carried Pennsylvania against a divided Democracy, and exulted over it, just as the Democrats are doing now; but they were beaten out of sight in 1836, and every year afterwards until 1840. The hard times brought about another political revulsion in that year, giving the Whigs a temporary hold on power; but they were again swept away in 1841, and were unable to make a stand again until 1846. That was the year in which it rained hard all election day, and the Whigs, much to their own astonishment, waked up next morning to find themselves victorious throughout the State. It was a clean sweep, and the exultation over it was so great that a looker-on would have thought that they had utterly extinguished their enemy. Yet in 1847 the State went back to its old love, and although there was a partial recovery in 1848, the State remained Democratic until the Republicans captured it from them in 1858.

In like manner the Democrats, after having been beaten for four years successively, carried the State again in 1862, and were wonderfully elated over it, but were beaten again in 1873, and so on successively until 1867, when they elected SHARSWOOD to the Supreme Bench. This was a new token, to them, of revivification, and they built great hopes upon it; but 1868 dispelled the illusion, and they have been under the weather ever since.

In all these cases the party that was exceptionally successful went into ecstacies over its temporary success, and predicated future triumphs as certain. The elation was natural; but the conclusions drawn were unphilosophical. Parties actually in the minority are enabled, now and then, to win victories through the blunders or carelessness of their opponents, but they are never able to profit by them, permanently, because they have not thereby attained to any additional strength, nor has the real strength of the majority been reduced. The Whig party was in a minority in Pennsylvania from 1832 to 1854, and its occasional victories within that period were mere accidents; and the Democratic party has likewise been in the minority in the State from 1858 to 1873, its two intermediate triumphs having resulted, not from its own strength, but from the temporary inattention of its opponents.

The few Democratic successes of 1873, therefore, are not to be considered as indicative of any change in public sentiment, or of any revolution in politics. In no instance has the strength of the party been increased. Its vote in Ohio, in Wisconsin and New York is less than its vote in former years when it was badly defeated; and the temporary triumphs won on such a light vote indicate only that the Republicans of those States have been caught napping. The party cannot profit by the successes so won, because the real strength of the other side is still unimpaired, and it will be exerted for the overthrow of the weaker on the first opportunity.

It is idle, of course, to expect that these reasonable considerations will keep the Democrats from chuckling over their temporary triumphs. They must be allowed to crow, and dance, and exult to their heart's content; but the thinking men of the country will not fail to see the facts in their actual light, and draw the proper conclusions from them.

STAND BY YOUR PARTY ORGANIZATION.

The Republicans of Chicago were induced in the late city election, to forego the calling of a city convention and the nomination of a party ticket, in order to enable them to enter into a no-party combination for the enforcement of "law and order." The result was that the combination was shamefully beaten. A purely partisan ticket might not have been beaten at all; but even if beaten badly, the party organization would have been left intact. As it is, the organization, or what was left of it, has been swept away.

In New York, the Republicans of the city were tempted to enter into combination with Apollo Hall, and yielded to the temptation. A joint ticket was constructed, half of Apollo Hall Democrats, and half of Republicans, and Tammany defeats the joint ticket by about the usual Democratic majority in that city. The Republicans gained nothing by the coalition and have lost, by it, that sense of self respect which would have been theirs had they been whipped simply as Republicans. It is now more than probable that a purely party ticket, put forward as such by the Republican organization, would have polled more votes than have been given to the coalition ticket.

Numberless instances could be given of the same kind. The sum total of the whole matter is, that coalitions do not prosper. The two political parties of the country are the natural outgrowth of its hostile political elements, and they are the proper instrumentalities for settling all its contests. "Reform," "Law and Order," and "Citizens'" tickets are mere clap-trap contrivances, and furnish the pap with which the men of intrigue feed those who are simple enough to trust in them. There is no fight on any question that cannot be fought out through the agency of the regular party organizations.

A NOVEL sight to all voters in New York on Tuesday last were the glass ballot-boxes, one in each polling station, marked "For the Memphis Sufferers." At each station that particular box was guarded by a good natured policeman, who quietly called the attention of the voter to its object, and after the voter had deposited his political ballots, asked him—"Ain't you going to vote in my box?" The appeal seemed to be irresistible. The laborers dropped five or ten cents into the box. Tradesmen and clerks contributed from twenty-five cents to a dollar. Every one gave something. At one box a voter deposited a $50 greenback. It is estimated that the contributions in that city will reach $25,000 from this source.

THE Boston Advertiser, referring to the near completion of the Hoosac tunnel, says: "The most interesting epoch in the history of the enterprise is now at hand. This month is to solve the problem of construction. Before Thanksgiving day, in all probability, a clear passage way will have been opened between Florida and Adams through the Hoosac mountain. The Legislature at its coming session will have no more important question before it than how best to utilize the great tunnel, which will be completely ready for use before the final adjournment is reached."

ONE of the multiplying signs of a disposition to forget and forgive between Unionist and confederate, appears in a meeting at Fernandina, Fla., on the 21st ult., of Union and confederate soldiers resident in Florida, "to consider the propriety of initiating a celebration by the soldiers of both armies of the anniversary of Washington's birthday." Prominent representatives of both sides addressed the meeting, and a committee was appointed to make arrangements for such a reunion on the 22d of February, 1874.

IT is understood, says the Philadelphia Ledger, that Col. T. A. Scott, first Vice President of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, has tendered to the Board of Directors his resignation of that office. Having grown up with the company, and being fully conversant with all its extended business, his knowledge of the railroad geography of the country and his services to the Pennsylvania Road are too important to be yielded up from any minor cause. It is not supposed that the Board will accept his tendered resignation.

The experimental shipment of frozen meat from Australia has proved a failure, but this was altogether owing to defects in the construction of the tanks containing the meat, and which, it is said, can be remedied. It will be interesting to watch the future operations of those concerned in this important scheme, the success of which would greatly inure to the advantage of our Texan herdsmen.

The report of the Commissioner of Pensions, for the fiscal year which ended June 30, 1873, shows that there were 16,405 new pensioners added to the rolls during the year, and 10,223 names dropped on account of death, recovery from disability, remarriage of widows, &c. The net gain to the number of pensioners was 6,182, making a grand total of pensioners of all classes of 238,411.

The importations of new silk and of manufactured silk goods for the ten months of this year were as follows: Raw silk $4,522,515, as against $5,805,981 in 1872, and $5,208,356 in 1871. Manufactures of silk $22,773,360, as against $30,612,123 in 1872, and $30,311,736 in 1871. In both staples the importations have fallen off nearly one-fourth.

"SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS!" "Glorious Victory!" "Republicanism meets its Sedan!" "Richmond Recaptured!" "Norfolk Redeemed!" "Another Petersburg Crater!" "Naval Victory at Portsmouth!" "The War Carried into Africa!" "Carry the News to Hiram!" is the way it affects the lunatic of the Richmond Enquirer.

GENERAL AND PARTICULAR.

THE WATCHMAN.

BY MRS. LEVI WADE.

A little girl with sunny hair,
With eyes of heaven's own blue so rare,
Came shivering through the icy street,
Pierced by the wind and snowy sleet.
Of warmth, of food, of all bereft,
Except a dying mother's love,
That taught her faith in God above.
With childlike faith, with prayer and song,
The child had waited all day long,
Believing God, so great, so good,
Would surely send them coal and food;
But as the weary hours wore by,
And neither friend nor aid came nigh,
She climbed upon the dying bed,
And to her mother, whispering, said,
"The Father will not hear my prayer,
For our poor home he does not care;
But in the church on Sabbath days,
He listens when the preacher prays;
And, mother dear, I'll go there now,
And in His place I'll humbly bow,
Till He who is the children's friend,
Shall help, by some bright angel, send."

She kissed the lips whence came no breath,
Not knowing they were closed in death,
And went forth in the wintry storm
With trembling steps and shivering form;
Nor paused till she had reached the spot,
Which she so eagerly had sought.
The night-watch on his lonely beat
Had shelter sought from snow and sleet,
Beneath the arch that roofed the door,
In hope the storm would soon be o'er.
Seen through the darkness of the night,
He stood before her clad in white;
And when the child beheld him there
She knelt in attitude of prayer,
And said, "Oh, Savior! Jesus dear!
I knew that I should find you here;
I've prayed all day for you to come,
And bring us food or send us some.
We are very cold, and hungry, too,
Dear Jesus, and I've come for you,
Because I know that you are good,
That you can give us fire and food.
Last night we ate up all our bread;
We had no fire, so went to bed.
This morning mother could not rise;
Oh, come with me before she dies!
She has not tasted food to-day,
But all day long I've heard her pray
That you, dear Jesus, soon would come,
And take us to a better home."

The watchman listened with surprise,
And tears of pity filled his eyes.
He lifted up the little form,
And bore her quickly through the storm,
Where warmth and food and willing hands,
And generous love met all demands.
Then quickly sought, and found the dead,
And pitying hearts came round her bed,
And sobs and tears were in the room,
As strangers dressed her for the tomb.
And in his home the orphan child,
Who came to him that night so wild
E'er proved a sunbeam, whose bright ray
Could chase the darkest clouds away.

PITTSBURGH, November 5, 1873.

It has, in some whey, oc-curd to a New Hampshire man to make, with the assistance of every cheese manufacturer in the United States, a mitey Centennial cheese, big enough to accommodate on its side hundreds of people!

Buchu Banking and a subscription for Nast are the hobby horses the New York Herald is now riding. The two other steeds, Cæsarism and the Chief Justiceship, have been retired from the ring.

The literary character of Cincinnati journalism will probably be very perceptibly raised through the influence of eleven night schools, which are now in full blast in that city.

Nebraska editors are not lacking in candid frankness. For example, the introductory article of a newly established paper commences with the following sentence: "The object in view in the establishment of this paper is the procuring of means wherewith to buy bread-and-butter and good clothes."

The Ohio Constitutional Convention will submit the result of its labors for the adoption of the people by the first day of April next. Why the first?

A great number of "distinguished American politicians" are said to have visited the ancient city of Jerusalem during the past few months. That's all right. Very few of them will ever see the New.

Any young man who wants to earn his country's undying gratitude, let him kill "Eli Perkins."

There were 1,570,000,000 feet of timber cut on the headwaters of the Mississippi and its tributaries the past year—clearing about two hundred and fifty square miles of pineries, that leave no resort when they have been exhausted. The country near is utterly denuded by fires and chopping.

There is much talk about the present need of confidence. Well; there will be no want of confidence where there is constant oversight and constant work with no duty left undone.

Columbus is preparing to witness the inauguration of Governor Allen. Who would have thought that Christopher would rise from the tomb to see his old friend sworn in?

Potter Palmer's new hotel in Chicago, just thrown open to the public, is said to be the finest caravansary in the world. The building will cost about $2,000,000; the site upon which it stands is valued at $1,000,000, and the furniture will cost nearly $500,000.

They keep up the agitation over their decreasing iron trade in the British papers, and still quarrel with America because she has gone into business for herself.

A second part of "The Robbers," by Schiller, is said to have recently been discovered in Germany.

The Providence, R. I., tool company, which is making 600,000 rifles for the Turkish government, has received notice that the Sultan will order 500,000 more of the same pattern.

New York city, as well as Boston, is going to enlarge its borders. The annexation of Westchester to New York has been carried by a very large vote. This opens the way for the indefinite expansion of that city.

The complexion of the new Legislature of Massachusetts indicates the repeal of the prohibitory features of the liquor law. It has proved a little too much of the "ramrod" order.

The Connecticut State Medical Society, recognizing the importance of a good education as the foundation of a successful study of medicine, has taken measures to raise the requirements for candidates for the degree of M. D.

A noble institution, designed as a home for children of deceased ministers, has been opened at Clinton, North Carolina. It is under the control of Presbyterians, but offers its benefactions to all.

The Memphis papers are going in strong for municipal improvements of a nature calculated to make their city less pestilential and correspondingly prosperous.

No teacher ignorant of hygienic laws, and especially of the means by which the sight is preserved and impaired, is, in the opinion of the Vermont Teachers' Association, qualified for his or her position. And they are right.

The merchants of Dodge City, Kansas, refuse to contract for more buffalo hides this season, owing to hard times. The trade last year at that point alone amounted to over half a million dollars.

The merchants, fishermen and adult population of St. Johns, Newfoundland, are happy on account of the unusual success which has attended their fisheries this season. Never was the catch more abundant, and fish form a food wholesome, palatable and cheap.

Buffalo are not as plentiful this year as last, and hunters experience some difficulty in securing them. The Indians are holding the bison south of the Territory, and forbid hunters from crossing the line.

The colored people of Washington have twelve public schools, attended by over 4,000 pupils, and taught by eighty-four teachers. In general management and successful results, the colored schools compare favorably with the white.

Most of the Mennonite emigrants to Southern Dakota have settled in the towns for the winter, but they will indulge in agricultural operations in the open prairie when spring opens.

PERSONAL.

What is fame? A traveler recently visited Natick to call on Mr. Wilson, the Vice President of the United States. He was told that he would know Mr. Wilson's house by the color—yellow. But there were two houses on the street, a few rods apart, of that color. Of course he drove to the wrong house first. A respectable looking woman came to the door. "Does Mr. Wilson live here?" "No." Do you know where he lives?" "What Wilson?" "Henry Wilson, Vice President." "I don't think he lives about here. I never heard of him before."

Ex-President Fillmore, and four surviving members of his old Cabinet—Conrad of Louisiana, Secretary of War; Hall of New York, Postmaster General; Graham of North Carolina; Secretary of the Navy, and Stewart of Virginia, Secretary of the Interior—are eepected to visit Washington this winter for a friendly reunion.

Rumor has it that no less a person than Prince Napoleon is coming to this country for a tour of observation.

London Fun, speaking of Mark Twain's late lecture in that city, says: "A feeling of melancholy spread over the audience for the reason that the lecture was ended." And Punch perpetrates this witty epigram in honor of the occasion:

"'Tis time we Twain did show ourselves;" 'twas said
By Cæsar, when one Mark had lost his head;
By Mark, whose head's quite bright, 'tis said again;
Therefore, "Go with me, friends, to bless this Twain."

A man in Kentucky, all alive and well, recently saw a statement of his own death in a newspaper. He did not so much resent the general statement as the inaccuracy of the details; and so he wrote to the editor: "Sir—I notice a few errors in the obituary of myself, which appeared in your paper of Wednesday last. I was born in Greenup county, not Caldwell, and my retirement from business in 1860 was not owing to ill health, but to a little trouble I had in connection with a horse. The cause of my death was not small-pox. Please make correction, for which I inclose fifty cents."

Gerald Massey, who has written some fair poems, and gained a creditable reputation thereby among our countrymen, is striving to destroy it, to the best of his ability, by delivering lectures and making speeches filled with the wildest vagaries of spiritualism.

Clarence Seward, or New York, and De Costa, of Philadelphia, have been retained by the prosecution as counsel in the Tichborne case. This is supposed to be in consequence of the testimony of Luie, the witness from this part of the world who swore he was steward of the Osprey and identified "the Claimant" as one of the men picked up from a boat in mid ocean.

Helmbold still lives, and has a card in the London Cosmopolitan, in which he complains of the slurs passed upon him by the New York Herald in calling Jay Cooke & Co. and Henry Clews & Co. "Buchu Bankers." Helmbold says he "has still a name and a property to protect," and that he has done a good deal for the newspapers through his advertising. The newspapers did a good deal for him, per advertising, would be the proper way to put it.

It is a popular idea that the days when men of genius starved or fawned on wealthy patrons for support have passed away. Times may have improved, yet there is room for improvement when Thomas Miller, the once noted English "basket weaving poet," has been suffered to be reduced, by a long illness, to the brink of starvation, and is now helped by the charitable.

John Quincy Adams turns up among the elect to the Massachusetts Legislature.

Help the Torpid Organs.

When the body is in a state of health, the food taken into the stomach acts on the bowels as a stimulant, causing in them that worm-like motion by which their contents are expelled. The liver being in a natural condition, the flow of bile (which is a mild cathartic) into the intestines is ample and regular, and hence the discharges are easy and sufficiently frequent. The reverse of all this constitutes costiveness, and the only true method of cure is to restore the functional activity of the two important organs which use the bowels as a sewer for the egress of waste matter. For this purpose Hostetter's Stomach Bitters can be confidentially recommended as the most effective of all medicines. It is not too much to say that chronic constipation would be unknown if the Bitters were in universal use as a remedy in the earlier stages of the complaint. At this period of the year, when dyspepsia with all its kindred disorders are so apt to be engendered and aggravated by the dampness of the atmosphere, this unequaled stimulant, tonic and alterative should be taken daily.

MEDICAL.

Speedily Cured!
ALL FORMS of Venereal, Private and Nervous Diseases at the old established Girard Medical Institute, No. 172 Second avenue, between Smithfield and Grant streets, Pittsburgh, Pa.
Spermatorrea, or Seminal Weakness or Impotency, as the result of self-abuse in youth or excess in maturer years, and which produce some of the following effects, as emissions, blotches, debility, dizziness, nervousness, dimness of sight, cough, indigestion, constipation, despondency, confusion of ideas, aversion to society, loss of memory and sexual power, and which unfits the victim for business or marriage, and ultimately causing insanity and consumption, are thoroughly and permanently cured. Medicine supplied at the Institute. A medical pamphlet relating to private diseases sent in sealed envelope for two stamps. All communications confidential.
This Institute was established for the express purpose of supplying the afflicted with scientific and reliable treatment, and is not to be classed with the numerous quacks and impostors that infest all large cities. The proprietors have made the treatment of Private and Special Diseases the study of their lives, and can refer to thousands all over the country that have been benefitted and cured by their treatment. No matter how difficult or how long standing your case may be, if curable, after a personal examination they will frankly tell you. Remember, they have cured many cases given up by other physicians.
Patients treated by mail or express, but where possible it is best to visit the city for personal consultation; so address

—Messrs. Ira B. McVay & Co., bankers, cor-ier of Fourth avenue and Smithfield street, ucumbed to the existing financial pressure, o-day, and closed their doors. The event reated considerable stir in moneyed circles, ut no serious effects are yet apparent or ex-pected to follow their suspension—which, it is o be hoped, will be only temporary. Messrs. IcVay & Co. worked energetically he meet their liabilities in the face f unusually disheartening circumstances, and oped until the last moment to weather the torm. But the failure of Eastern correspondents, the locking up of funds in various suspended banks and banking houses, the great ifficulty in realizing currency on securities at nything like their real value, and the non-rrival of expected remittances, proved too nuch for them, and they were compelled to hut down. Commencing on the day following the suspension of Jay Cooke & Co., McVay c Co. have been subjected daily to heavy rains on the part of depositors, the outflow of urrency frequently reaching $100,-00 to $150,000 per day. All this time paper was maturing, and in nany, if not a majority of instances going to rotest. Their line of deposits, we are informed, had been reduced, at the hour of closing usiness on the 6th inst., to less than $1,000.-00. The house has been long in business, and lways enjoyed the full confidence of the public, who, in the day of their misfortune, will ympathize with them. A statement of the ffairs of the firm will be prepared as soon as ossible, and submitted to the creditors. As near as can be judged now, the latter will lose ut a small per cent. of their claims.

PRODUCE AND GENERAL MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL,
FRIDAY, November 7, 1873.

REMARKS.—To-day there was a relapse in trade of all kinds, and we can report little or no business doing, Everybody looked discouraged at the gloomy prospect before them. They seem to think that the present financial matters were anything as yet but satisfactory, and forebode more trouble. Farmers who were in the city to-day with their farm products were discouraged when they saw the condition of things, and what they sold was at ruinously low prices, scarcely rumunerating them for their trouble and expense of coming here.

During the past twenty-four hours the following were the receipts of the leading articles of produce:

Apples, bbls	457	Cheese, bxs	130
Butter, pkgs	24	Flour, bbls	1,980
Potatoes, bush	2,255	Bacon, pieces	1,334

Below will be found the wholesale and retail prices for the various articles enumerated:

ALES—Trade continues to rule slow, with no change to note in prices. We quote: X, $9; XX, $10; porter $10; India ale $11 ⅌ bbl; Bass' English ale, in kilderkins of 22 galls, $22 75@24; bbls, 44 gallons, $42 25@44; hhds, 68 gallons, $62 50@65; in cases, bottled, $2 75; Guinness and Younger's stouts, $2 75; Cantrell & Cochrane's ginger ale, $2 25 ⅌ doz; Caswells, Hazard & Co.'s ginger ale, $1 75 per doz.

ASHES—There is very little doing that is worthy of reporting. We can quote soda ash, common 4½c; do refined, 5½@6c; nitrate, 4½@5c; arsenic, 5c; pot ash, 9c; pearl ash, 10c; black lead, 4½@5c.

APPLE BUTTER—The supply is large with the demand light, with sales at 60@65c ⅌ gallon.

BEANS—Continues in light request, while there is a fair supply offering. We can quote navy at $2 75@3 00 ⅌ bushel and medium $2 50@2 75 ⅌ bushel, according to quality and purchasers.

BANNER BAKING POWDER—There is a good trade to report, and prices remain unchanged as follows: ¼ lb cans $1 60 ⅌ doz; ½ lb cans $3; 1 lb cans $5 50; 5 lb cans $25; 10 lb wooden boxes 40c ⅌ lb.

BROOMS—Are firm at the following quotations: No. 5 X $3 00 ⅌ doz; No. 5, $3 25 ⅌ doz; No. 4, $3 ⅌ doz; No. 3, $2 50 ⅌ doz; No. 2, $2 25 ⅌ doz; No. 1 $1 75 ⅌ doz; No. 1 Shakers, $3 50 ⅌ doz; No. 2 Shakers, $3 ⅌ doz.

BROOM CORN—The demand continues light, with the supply light. We can quote green at 8@9c; green hurl 10c; red tip 4c.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—Has declined in price. The offerings continue liberal, while the demand is not very good. The weather being warm has had a tendency to make the demand light. We can quote State at 4@4½c ⅌ lb.

BACON AND PROVISIONS—There is no material change in prices since our last. Our previous quotations remain unchanged, as follows: Hams, extra sugar cured, ⅌ lb, 13½c; shoulders, extra sugar cured, ⅌ lb, 10c; breakfast bacon, sugar cured, ⅌ lb, 12c; dried beef, extra sugar cured, ⅌ lb, 16c; beef tongues, sugar cured, ⅌ doz, $7 50. Bacon—shoulders, ⅌ lb, 9c; rib sides, 9c; short rib sides, ⅌ lb, 9½c; clear sides, ⅌ lb, 10c. Mess pork, ⅌ bbl, $15 50. Lard—prime leaf, in tierces, ⅌ lb, 9c; ½ bbls, 9½c; refined for summer use, in tierces, ⅌ lb, 9c; refined, for summer use, in ½ bbls, 9½c; refined, for summer use, in buckets, ⅌ lb, 10½c; refined in 3 lb caddies, ⅌ lb, 12½c; refined in 5 lb caddies, ⅌ lb, 12c; refined in 3 lb pails, ⅌ lb, 13½c; refined in 6 lb pails, ⅌ lb, 12½c. Ham sausage, ⅌ lb, 10c.

BUTTER—Trade within the past day or so has slackened up somewhat and there does not seem to be much demand for butter of any kind. Choice roll can be had at 25@27c ⅌ lb in round lots and 28@30c ⅌ lb by the single tub. Good packed butter 20@22c ⅌ lb, and medium at 15@18c ⅌ lb.

CANNED GOODS—During the past fortnight, those of our merchants who have to pay gold for their goods have been watching the gold market very closely and deferred purchasing their winter stock up to the last moment. In the meantime gold has tumbled from day to day, which has enabled our merchants to purchase their English canned and bottled goods at greatly reduced prices than they would if ordered a month or two ago. During the past week they have received fresh invoices of English pickles, chow-chow and other goods, and are enabled by the aid of the Atlantic cable and the low premium on gold to put them in this market at fully 75c per dozen less than they otherwise would. We would invite the especial attention of both city and country buyers to the following carefully revised and corrected figures for the leading varieties of canned and bottled goods in this market. 2 lbs blackberries, ⅌ dozen, $2 25; 2 white cherries, $3 00; 2 lbs red cherries, $3 00; 2 lbs green gages, $3 75; 2 lbs peaches, $2 50; 3 lbs peaches, $3 40; 2½ lbs California pears, $5 00; 2 lbs egg plums, $3 75; 2 lbs Damson plums, $2 50; 2 lbs pineapples, $3 75; 2 lbs quinces, $3 25; 2 lbs strawberries, $3 00; 2 lbs lima beans, $2 50; 2 lbs string beans, $2 00; 2 lbs Winslow's corn, $3 00; 2 lbs sugar corn, $2 75; 2 lbs Baltimore corn, $2 25; 2 lbs green peas, $3 00; 2 lbs succotash, $3 00; 3 lbs tomatoes, $2 40; 3 lbs pumpkins, $2 50; 1 lb California salmon, $3 25; 2 lbs California salmon, $4 59; 1 lb spiced salmon, $7 00; 1 lb fresh lobsters, $2 75; 2 lbs fresh lobsters, $3 75; 1 lb Cove oysters, $1 15@1 40; 2 lbs Cove oysters, $2 00@2 30; 1 lb spiced oysters, $1 75; 2 lbs spiced oysters, $2 75; tomato catsup, quarts, $2 25; tomato catsup, pints, $1 50; Halford sauce, pints, $4 25; Halford sauce, ½ pints, $2 50.

Mustard—Imitation French mustard, ⅌ doz, $1 50; genuine French mustard, $2 50; Coleman's ½ D. S. F., $2 10; Coleman's ¼ do, $3 75; Coleman's 1 do, $7 50; 4 and 6 lb do, 40c; 18 lb kegs 25c.

Pickles—Medium, bbls, $10; medium half bbls $5 50; half bbls Boston mixed, $8 00; quarts, plain or mixed, ⅌ doz, $1 50; quarts, plain or mixed, $2 00; half gallons, plain, $3 75; gallons, plain, $5 50; Hexagon gallons, mixed, $10; English chow chow, pints, $3 50; English chow chow, quarts, $6 00; English mixed pickles, pints, $3 50; English mixed pickles, quarts, $6 00; English cauliflower, pints, $3 50; English cauliflower, quarts, $6 00; English picalili, pints, $3 50; English picalili, quarts, $6 00; English white onions, pints, $4 50; English white onions, quarts, $7 50; English gherkins, pints, $3 75; English gherkins, quarts, $6 50; English Mofussil pickles, pints, $4 50.

CARBON OIL—There is but a moderate trade to report and dealers quote sales by the car lot at the works at 13@13½c with the market well supplied. In a small way from store the actual advance is obtained.

CRACKERS—Dealers report a very dull market and quote the following staple makes at the reduced prices: Lemon biscuit 11½c; ginger snaps, 12½c; oyster crackers, 7c; soda crackers, 7c; sugar crackers, 9½c; butter crackers 7c; water crackers, 7c ⅌ lb.

CHEESE—We can still report a very firm and active market for cheese. The eastern and foreign export demand continues good with prices well maintained. We have no change to note in our home prices, and the following are the ruling rates: New York Nutmeg, 15c ⅌ lb; Young America 15c; prime New York Goshen, 16c ⅌ lb; Ohio factory in round lots, at 13½@14c for August make, and 14½@14¾c for September make. In a jobbing way 15c. There is little inquiry for farm dairy. Limburger and Sweitzer quiet at 17@18c ⅌ each.

COUNTRY LARD—Is in fair request at 8@9c for prime. Dark lard, for lard oil, 7c ⅌ lb.

CEMENTS—Have undergone no change in prices, and we continue to quote as follows: Louisville $2 25@2 50; Beeson's Phoenix $2 25@2 50; Rosendale, $4 00a4 50; white lime, $1 90; calcined plaster, $4 50; land plaster, $3 00a3 50.

CONCENTRATED LYE—Trade in this article is reported as very good, and we can quote sales at $8 ⅌ case of 4 doz. packages.

CORN MEAL—Trade rules quiet, with reported sales at $30 ⅌ ton. If the meal is bolted, $1 60 ⅌ 100 lbs is obtained from the store.

CIDER—Is not in much demand as yet. The stock is only moderate, and we can quote it at $6@8 per bbl.

DRIED FRUIT—There is a fair supply of both apples and peaches, but the demand continues light. We can quote dried apples at 7@9c per lb, and 10@12c per lb for dried peaches.

EGGS—The demand has declined somewhat while the supply of both fresh and limed eggs have increased. Fresh eggs sell at 26@27c per doz, and limed at 24@25c per doz.

FISH—Prices remain unchanged. We quote: Extra No. 1 mess mackerel, $35; No 1 mess mackerel, $33; extra No 1 shore mackerel, $25; No 1 shore mackerel $23; extra No 1 bay mackerel, $19; No 1 bay mackerel, $17; extra No 2 shore mackerel, $17; No 2 bay mackerel, $14; large No 3 mackerel, $11; No 3 mackerel, $10; split Labrador herring, $8 to $9, white fish, $7 50a8 00; lake trout, $7 00a7 50; large Georges codfish, $7 50 ⅌ 100; medium Georges codfish, $6 50 ⅌ 100; red herring, scale 50c ⅌ box; No 1 35c ⅌ box.

FEATHERS—There has been more inquiry of late for both No 1 and C grades. The stock, however, continues light and we can quote as follows: A No 1 90c and for C 80c ⅌ lb.

FLOUR—During the past twenty-four hours the receipts have been heavier, while the demand is in sympathy with it. Dealers continue to be very cautious to whom they sell. Their old, reliable customers will have the preference to new and uncertain parties who have lately come to this market for what they need. Prices are firm at the quotations given below:

State amber wheat	$8 50
State red wheat	8 00@8 25
Fancy St. Louis	9 00
Fancy Kentucky white wheat	8 25
Good Ohio red wheat	7 75@8 00
Wisconsin Spring wheats	6 75@7 00
Minnesota Spring wheats	7 25
Rye flour	5 25@5 50

GRAIN—There was no improvement since yesterday that we can report. Everything to-day was stagnation, and not one dealer was disposed to do anything. Collections continue hard to make and commission men stubbornly refuse to sell unless the money is forthcoming. We can quote as follows: Red winter wheat at $1 40@1 50, as to quality and purchasers; barley has a wide margin, and ranges from $1 00 to 1 40; white oats 46@47c; new ear corn, 45@50c; old ear corn, 55@60c; shelled corn, 58@60c; rye, 80@85c. We learned of the following sales to-day:

1 car red winter wheat	$1 50
1 car dark mixed oats, in elevator	42
3 cars yellow shelled corn	60

The following were the receipts of grain for the past twenty-four hours:

Barley, sacks	719	Wheat, sacks	1,014
Oats, sacks	2,433	Corn, sacks	340
Rye, sacks	528

GROCERS' MARKET—Upon inquiry as to the state of trade, our leading grocers will, with few exceptions, tell us, "no trade; no money; collections difficult; no margin in prices for goods they offer for sale," and much more of the same sort. This, indeed, looks very discouraging, and while this state of affairs continues there is little that can be said that will be of interest to buyers. We can quote prices unchanged as follows:

Sugars—Crushed sugar, 11c; granulated, 11c; powdered, 11c; cut loaf, 11½c; A, 10½c; B, 10¼c; extra C, 10¼c; circle C, 10c; Franklin extra C, 9¾c; Franklin extra C, No 2, 9½c; Franklin C, yellow, 8c; Johnson & Son's C, 8¾c; Metropolitan C, 9¾c; other grades 7@7½c.

Coffee—Green—Rio, fair, 23c ⅌ lb; Rio, good, 24c ⅌ lb; Rio, strictly prime, 25c ⅌ lb; Rio, choice, 26c ⅌ lb; Java, 30c ⅌ lb. Roasted—Rio, loose, 29½c ⅌ lb; roasted Rio, in 1 lb papers, 30c ⅌ lb; roasted Java, in 1 lb papers, 36c ⅌ lb.

Teas—Young Hyson, 50c@$1 10 ⅌ lb; gunpowder, 50c@$1 25 ⅌ lb; Imperial, 50c@$1 00 ⅌ lb; Japan, 55c@$1 00 ⅌ lb; Oolong, 25@85c per lb; fancy, $1 00 ⅌ lb; Souchong, 25@85c ⅌ lb.

Syrups—Common, 28@36c; honey, 45c; golden, 50c; Centennial, 65c; Vienna Exposition, 70c; New Orleans molasses, 70@75c.

Rice—Rangoon, 7½@7¾c; Patna, 8@8½c; Carolina, 8½@9c.

Pearl Barley—Nos. 3 and 6, 7c ⅌ lb.

Oat Meal—A and B, 4½ ⅌ lb.

Candles—Star, 21c ⅌ lb; stearine, 14c ⅌ lb; mould, 12@12½c ⅌ lb.

GAME—The receipts to-day were more plentiful and varied. The quality is from fair to good. The demand is fair and we can quote as follows: Wild turkeys, $1 50@2 00; quails, $2@2 50 ⅌ doz; pheasants, 75c@$1 00 ⅌ pair, $4 50@4 00 ⅌ dozen; prairie chickens, $3 75@4 00 ⅌ doz; wild ducks 50@75c ⅌ pair; rabbits, dressed, 50c ⅌ pair; squirrels, dressed, 30@35c ⅌ pair, $2 00@2 50 ⅌ doz; venison, 18@20c ⅌ lb.

HAY—Everything from choice timothy down to common continues very slow. There is a good supply on sale and prices rule low. We heard of several car lot sales at $20@23 ⅌ ton.

HOMINY—Is in good supply, and the demand light at $5 ⅌ bbl.

HONEY—The receipts have been quite liberal. We can quote choice clover at 40c ⅌ lb, and buckwheat at 30@32c ⅌ lb.

LARD OIL—Continues in fair request. Sales are made at 80c ⅌ gallon for winter strained, and 71c ⅌ gallon for fall strained.

MINCE MEATS—A variety of brands are in market, and in plentiful supply. The demand continues light but we have no change to note in prices. We quote at 11@11½c ⅌ lb by the ½-bbl, and 12c ⅌ lb by the tub.

MILL FEED—There is a fair city trade to report, but little doing in heavy round lots, although we learned of a sale of a car lot of bran at 30c per 100 lbs. Our previous quotations remain unchanged as follows: Middlings at $25@30 ⅌ ton; from store $1 25@1 50 ⅌ 100 lbs; oats and corn chops, $1 35@1 40 ⅌ 100 lbs; bran $14@16 ⅌ ton.

NUTS—The demand has fallen off since our last report for all kinds, while the receipts have been liberal. Hickory nuts $1 25@1 50 ⅌ bushel; black walnuts are dull at $1 75@2 00 ⅌ bbl; peanuts firm at 10@12c ⅌ lb; chestnuts $4 25@4 50 ⅌ bushel.

POULTRY—The market is about divided with the demand in favor of the dressed fowls. The supply for both is good with little inquiry for live chickens. Live chickens can be quoted from 40c to 50c ⅌ pair by the coop. Dressed chickens sell from 10c to 13c ⅌ lb as to quality; dressed turkeys, 18@20c ⅌ lb, dressed ducks 14@15c ⅌ lb.

PEARL WHEAT—Is in good demand and grocers sell it readily at $7 50 a case, less 25 ⅌ cent discount.

RAGS—The market is very flat at 3c for country linen rags; woolen rags 9c ⅌ lb.

SALT—We can quote No 1 X by the car lot at $2 85 ⅌ bbl, and $2 00 ⅌ bbl in a retail way. No. 1 by the car lot, $1 65; and in a small way, $1 75 ⅌ bbl.

SEEDS—Timothy continues dull at $3 50, but in a small way from store at $3 75 ⅌ bushel.

SAPOLIO—Trade rules well for both kinds on sale, the hand Sapolio meeting with good sale everywhere. By the case of six dozen we can quote it at $6 00, and for the hand sapolio, $5 00 ⅌ case.

SOAP—Country soap is in good supply, and dealers are holding it at 5a6c ⅌ lb.

TALLOW—Market very quiet at 6½@7c ⅌ lb.

VINEGAR—Choice cider vinegar can be quoted at 15@18c ⅌ gallon; white wine, 35c ⅌ gallon and charge for packages.

VEGETABLES AND FRUITS—There was nothing worthy of note doing to-day. Everything in this line was subject to the order of the buyer, if a cash one, otherwise but little trade was done.

Potatoes were in excellent demand, but the supply on sale was caused, no doubt by the unavoidable detention of the cars containing them by the railroad companies, who have, owing to shippers overloading them, been compelled to reweigh them for the purpose of finding the exact weight. From store dealers were obtaining $1 10 for Lake Shore peachblows. Sweets are in good demand, with the supply of Jersey's light. Baltimores were in but moderate request.

Onions have undergone no change since our last report. Prices remain very firm at our quotations given below.

Apples, especially the choice varieties, are looking up, as the demand is improving. There is some inquiry for good winter apples, and in a week or so the market will be in an improved condition.

Other vegetables and fruits have undergone no change since our last report, and the figures can be found below.

We refer our readers to the following list for the ruling quotations:

WHISKY—During the past week the prices have fluctuated, and it has been difficult to quote the market correctly. In this city buyers of highwines profess to take the Chicago quotations as a basis of the market price here. Lately we have noticed that the lots of highwines made in Cincinnati and Louisville are reported considerably below the Chicago figures. As an instance we quote the following, taken from a Cincinnati paper: "Whisky is lower, with a good demand and light offerings at the decline. The sales were 131 bbls at 85c ⅌ gallon in iron bound cooperage." We merely cite this as proof of what we assert. According to the Chicago quotations received by wire late to-night, the quotations for this market would be 92a94c ⅌ gallon. Cologne spirits 97c ⅌ gallon.

WOODEN WARE—Two hoop pails, $2 40; three hoop do, $2 65; No 3 tubs, $8 25; No 2 do, $9 25; No 1 do, $10 75; Washboards, IXL, $4 50a3 00.

PITTSBURGH OIL TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY COMMERCIAL,
FRIDAY, November 8, 1873.

REMARKS—The market both for crude and refined shows no signs of improvement, and dealer refuse to buy unless it is for their immediate wants. It is not for a want of confidence in each other, but, on the contrary, the falling off in the demand. Even at present prices the refiners should be satisfied, for they have had everything in their own hands for the past few years. By reference to our files we see that the difference between crude and refined is far greater now than it was only a few years ago, and then the price of crude was higher, and that of refined much lower than at the present time.

CRUDE.

The market at this point continues dull and inactive, with but few transactions to report. What sales were made were at figures ranging from 2¾@3c ⅌ gallon. We learned of the following sales at

PARKER'S.

1,000 bbls. United pipe	95
1,000 bbls, Union pipe	$1 05
1,000 bbls, Union pipe	1 02½

REFINED.

The market here is very unsettled. Holders were offering oil at remarkably low prices compared with what they have heretofore obtained, with no buyers. For immediate eastern delivery we can quote at 12⅝a12¾c; sellers' option to the 25th of November 12c, with no bids for December. For western delivery the market was panicky, with no buyers. We learned that 12½c per gallon was offered and refused.

OIL BARRELS

The market is well supplied and demand light. We can report sales of city make at $2 10, and for country make $2 00.

[By Western Union Telegraph Line.]

TITUSVILLE, November 7.—The Herald says: The petroleum market on the upper road was a little off yesterday, closing weak at $1 30. At Parker's the market was dull and weaker. The home refined market was 6½c in bulk, and 12c in bbls. Sales and resales of crude:

WEEKLY REVIEW OF THE PIG IRON AND BLOOM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY COMMERCIAL,
SATURDAY, November 8, 1873.

We are unable to report any improvement in the pig iron market. The trade is very dull and in a very unsatisfactory condition. Mill irons are quoted nominally at $30a31 per ton, 4 mos., but no sales are reported. Foundry irons are in no demand.

Receipts of Blooms, Pig Metal and Ore.

Following are the receipts of metal and ore for the past twenty-four hours:

IRON MARKETS.

ST. LOUIS.

November 5.—The receipts of pig iron for the week were 1,068 tons and 3,000 tons of ore. Total receipts of pig iron since January 1 were 52,162 tons, against 72,141 tons for the same time in 1872. Shipments of pig iron for the past week were 170 tons and 1,518 tons of ore. The market for pig iron is very much unsettled, and it is difficult to give reliable quotations. The markets elsewhere are reported dull and nominal, and a large number of consumers, who had large orders out, have countermanded them as a precautionary measure. This is the case at both Cleveland and Pittsburgh. Everybody is contrasting so far as practicable, his outstanding obligations. We quote nominally as follows, although the few sales made were at lower prices.

Bituminous Coal Iron, made from Iron Mountain Ore—No 1 foundry $40; No 2 do $38; No 1 mill $34; No 2 mill $33; white and mottled $32.

Cold Blast Charcoal—Nos 1, 2, 3 and white and mottled, red short, $60; Nos 1, 2, 3 and white and mottled, neutral, $63.

Hot Blast Charcoal Irons—No 1 foundry, red short, $50; No 2 foundry, red short, $47; Nos 1 and 2 mill, red short, $46; white and mottled $48a45.

Ore—Iron Mountain ore $10; Beaver Creek $8; Iron Ridge $8; Pilot Knob $6; Benton Creek $8.—Times.

New York Finance and Trade.

Gold Closed at 107⅛@107⅛.

NEW YORK, November 7, 1873—5 P. M.

The day closed with a very unsettled feeling. All sorts of rumors are afloat in regard to the financial situation in London, one of which was that discounts in the open market were 10 per cent. Rumors affecting the stability of various mercantile and financial houses also aided to give a feeling of apprehension.

THE STOCK MARKET.

Stocks weak and lower, ranging at ⅛a3½ decline; closed irregular though at a slight recovery from the lowest point of the day. The following are the principal extremes: New York Central 77⅛a80; Erie 35⅝a39⅛; Lake Shore 60⅛a62⅛; Wabash 34⅛a36⅛; Rock Island 84⅛a86; Western Union 45⅜a48⅛; Pacific Mail 26⅛a27⅛. Financial writers of the evening papers say a general feeling of dissatisfaction prevails in regard to the action of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad in declaring a scrip dividend of five per cent., when a cash dividend of six per cent. was expected and fully warranted by the business of the company.

MONONGAHELA—Five feet three inches and falling.

Boats Departing this Day.

Geneva	West Virginia	Donaldson, 6 A. M.
St. Louis	Messenger	M. A. Cox, 4 P. M.

THE marks last evening indicated five feet three inches and falling slowly. The weather during the day was cloudy with indications of rain.

A NUMBER of towboats arrived since our last.

THE steamer Juniata, Captain C. L. Brennan, is due from Cincinnati.

THE towboat Fearless, with a miscellaneous tow, arrived safe at St. Louis.

THE R. A. Babbage is said to have run through herself above New Orleans.

PARAGON is the last name selected for Captain Darragh's mammoth steamer.

THE last heard of the Mountaineer she was hard aground opposite Jefferson City.

THE steamer Comet and barges, Captain Hare, will be the first boat for St. Louis.

THE towboats John Hanna, N. J. Bigley No. 1 and Grand Lake were among the arrivals.

COTTON is being shipped from Shreveport to New Orleans at $3 50 a bale; passage $20.

PASSED Evansville on Thursday en route for New Orleans: Alice Brown, Fred. Wilson No. 2 and Baltic.

THE punctual steamer "Granite State, Capt. Kerr, left for Portsmouth on time, with a good trip, as usual.

THE following towboats were at Cairo yesterday en route for New Orleans: John A. Wood, Joseph H. Bigley, Sam. Parker and Ella.

THE St. Louis Democrat says that there is no demand for ore on the Ohio river, and hence the Iron Mountain Company are not bringing any ore to the river.

QUARANTINE has been raised from Shreveport, and all the approaches to Marshall, and freights will at once move forward to those points in increased volume.

MR. GEO. WEBB, while examining and looking over Cumberland dam, last week, discovered and raised a very large anchor. It weighs 1,700 pounds, and looks as if it had rested beneath the waters for a century.

THE punctual steamer West Virginia, Captain P. Donaldson, takes her departure this day at 6 A. M. for Brownsville, Geneva and way points. Passengers will bear this in mind.

THE Louisville Courier-Journal says: Capt. Wm. Varble, who has been confined to his house for some time, suffering from erysipelas in his hand, was on the levee yesterday, and will soon be able to resume his duties as falls pilot.

TUESDAY'S Memphis Avalanche says: Capt. D. Broadhurst is sick with fever, and last evening was quite low. He left the city some time ago to get clear of Yellow Jack, came back last Friday, took sick Saturday, and is now critical.

CINCINNATI.—The following comprise the arrivals of salt during the month of October, per flats and barges: From Pomeroy and Kanawha river, for C. M. Holloway, 12,584 bbls.; from upper Ohio and Kanawha rivers, for J. M. Rogers, 9,365 bbls.; from Mason City, for Roots & Co., 1,274 bbls. Total, 33,226 bbls.

THE splendid passenger steamer Messenger, Capt. M. A. Cox, takes her departure this day positively for Louisville, Evansville, Cairo and St. Louis. This boat has very superior accommodations and is in charge of careful and attentive officers. Our clever friend, Mr. John C. Fisher, will be found in the office. Passengers and shippers can rely on this.

THE New Orleans Times of Monday says: We paid a visit to Algiers yesterday, to witness the operation going on in raising the steamer Bossier. The wreckers have so far raised the stern high enough to observe the shaft, and will on Monday, work at her bow. The boat is coming up but slowly. The workmen engaged about the wreck say that the Bossier will be afloat by Wednesday next.

W. H. BROADWELL, City Weigher, reports the following amounts of pig iron weighed by him, as coming from the furnaces named, during October:

	Tons.		Tons.
Buffalo furnace	29	Hecla Furnace	297
Monitor furnace	119	Ohio furnace	142
Etna furnace	97	Pine Grove furnace	90
Olive furnace	97	Buchanan furnace	24
Mt. Savage furnace	256	Howard furnace	91
Hunnewell furnace	89	Grant furnace	80
Buena Vista furnace	134
Total			1,487

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—At the meeting of the stockholders of the Cincinnati, Big Sandy & Pomeroy Packet Company the following gentlemen were elected Directors for the ensuing year: John Kyle, Wash Honshell, John Means, David Gibson, E. B. Moore, Hiram Campbell, and T. N. Johnson. These gentlemen afterward met and elected the following officers: David Gibson, President; T. N. Johnson, Secretary and Treasurer; and Wash. Honshell, Superintendent. Capt. John Kyle was first re-elected President, but declined to serve another year. He has been President of the company ever since it became a corporation.

THE St. Louis Times says: Business a shade more active. The ruling rates to New Orleans are 50 cents for flour and 25 cents per 100 for pound freight. Produce is coming in quite briskly from the Upper Mississippi. Each of the Keokuk Northern Line boats are bringing in two and three barges. A brisk passenger travel is also setting in for the South. The great drawback is said to be the scarcity of exchange. Let the banks fully resume and there would not be tonnage enough to do the business. The present outlook is a gloomy one for steamboat employees. After passing through a long, dull summer, a longer and probably harder winter is ahead.

THE Memphis Avalanche, of Tuesday, says: "The aggregate stock of coal now on hand at this port is fully 1,500,000 bushels, and prices to steamers are as follows: Pittsburg, 65 cents per box; Grand Tower, 55 cents; Shotwell and other Lower Ohio coal, 50 cents. The stock now working through the Louisville canal to come south on the present rise is 1,200,000 bushels, as follows: Towboats—S. Horner, 12 boats and 2 barges, 287,000 bushels, destined for New Orleans; John A. Wood, 12 boats and 6 barges, 334,000 bushels, destined to Baton Rouge; Fred. Wilson No. 2, 10 boats and 6 barges with 230,000 bushels for New Orleans; Grand Lake No. 2, 12 boats and 2 barges, 287,000 bushels, for Bayou Sara; John Gilmore, 8 barges of coke and 1 of coal, for St. Louis, and W. H. Brown expects to send two tows, doubtless the Alice Brown and another out to Cairo. The J. H. Bigley, which steamer recently smashed her tow at the Newport bridge, will likely return to Pittsburgh from Louisville, and not come South. The coal coming on the present water is known as "fourth pool," and is not first quality, in fact, is not more than third or fourth rate. It has been selling at Louisville by the boat at 15 cents per bushel, generally on long time, the same rate as it commanded last year. A few of the miners who have so long been on a strike about Pittsburgh have gone to work, and the rest still hold out. The stock of coal now at New Orleans is 118 boats, or 2,596,000 bushels, all but 23 boats of which are on the market, and 21 of these are held by the gas company. Prices at New Orleans are 70 cents per barrel by the boat load, and 65 cents per box to steamers, and contracts are making to supply steamships at $7 50 per ton. Bayou Sara, Baton Rouge, and other points above New Orleans are charging 70 cents per box to steamers."

Housebreaking Near Mansfield.

The dwelling of W. B. Lea, Esq., of Leasdale, near Mansfield, was entered a few days ago, and robbed of over $100 in money and a quantity of silver ware. The larceny was committed in daylight, while the family were absent in the city. Bureau drawers and closets were ransacked, and the contents left in a topsy-turvy condition.

A Cutting Affray.

About eight o'clock last evening a cutting affray occurred on Center avenue, near Roberts street, the parties being colored men. Daniel Webster and Charley Hall got into a dispute at Richarson's saloon, when the former cut the latter on the thigh. The wound was not a serious one, judging from the fact that the injured man was able to go to a ball. Webster, who has one wooden leg, was arrested and placed in the Eleventh Ward lock-up.

An Unfounded Statement.

It was asserted yesterday on the street, by some person unknown to those who heard him, that he had deposited one thousand dollars with Messrs. Ira B. McVay & Co. a short time before they closed up. This statement is wholly false. The firm did not receive, yesterday, a thousand dollars in all, and the amounts taken over the counter were all returned to the owners excepting two or three small deposits, which have been placed in envelopes awaiting the call of the parties who left them.

Syphon Pumps.

Hugh Coll, through his counsel, yesterday filed a bill in equity in the District Court, setting forth that he had sold to Messrs. W. J. Sheriff, Hugh Loughry and John B. Sheriff, a certain interest in a patent syphon pump, that under the contract, the parties were to account to him quarterly and pay over the proceeds of one-half the sales; that they have failed to do so, and that a production of the books is necessary in order to get a just and equitable settlement. The petitioner asks for a commissioner to take testimony, and report the facts to the Court.

Prison Reform.

Rev. E. C. Wines, LLD., of New York, a gentleman whose name is widely and honorably associated with the important question of prison reform, alike in the United States and in Europe, is expected to visit this city next week. On Saturday, the 15th inst., he will visit the Allegheny County Workhouse, by invitation of the managers, and deliver an address. A dinner will be served on the occasion, and a number of prominent citizens, interested in the subject which Dr. Wines has so closely at heart, will be present as guests.

Western University.

One of the most satisfactory and prosperous terms of this institution ceased yesterday. On Monday a new term begins, affording an excellent opportunity for pupils to enter. We cannot commend too highly the advantages afforded by the University to those desiring an education. The course is varied to suit the circumstances of all, and we are glad to see that so many of our citizens are beginning to appreciate the efforts that have been and are being made to have a first class college in our midst.

Baptist Convention.

A Baptist Missionary Convention will be held in Pittsburgh and Allegheny, commencing on Thursday evening December 11th, in the Sandusky street Baptist Church, Allegheny city. The sessions of Friday morning and Friday afternoon will be held in the Fourth avenue Baptist Church, Pittsburgh. Interesting papers will be read by Rev. J. S. Hutson, Mr. H. Kirke Porter, Rev. A. J. Bonsall, Rev. A. Shadrach, Rev. C. E. Barto, Rev. B. F. Woodburn, Rev. Terry Stevens, and Mrs. R. W. Pearson. Addresses and other exercises are also marked on the programme.

Personal.

The Hon. O. B. McFadden, formerly of Washington, Pa., now of Olympia, Oregon, is in this city on his way to the national capital. Mr. McF. was appointed Territorial Judge of Oregon by President Pierce, in 1853, which position he held through Buchanan's time. Last fall he was nominated by the Democratic party for Congress against the Hon. Selucius Garfield, who distinguished himself in the campaign in this State. But while Mr. G., confident of success at home, was laboring for the Republican party of our State, McFadden was working energetically and successfully against his opponent, and carried the district by a very large majority. He is a gentleman of merit, and will be gladly welcomed to his old home by his former companions. He will go to Washington this evening in company with Marshal Hall.

J. K. Turner Rearrested.

J. K. Turner, of Titusville, recently pardoned and released from twelve years' imprisonment in the penitentiary, on account of ill health, and who, since his release, has been foolish enough to write two columns of abuse of President Grant, the Court, Mr. Swoope, and others, was yesterday rearrested, on a process from the United States District Court, to answer a charge of forgery, in which a true bill had been found, but upon which Mr. Swoope did not try him. He will be brought to this city to-day. Turner doubtless owed his liberty to Mr. Swoope, as much as to any other man, as the President would not have signed his pardon unless the District Attorney had recommended it—and he was induced to recommend it, not on Turner's account, but because of the persistent appeals and entreaties of Turner's aged father, one of the oldest Methodist ministers in the country, now on the brink of the grave, and who could not brook the idea of dying and leaving his son in the penitentiary. Had Turner kept a quiet tongue in his head, he would have escaped this new trouble. Now, Mr. Swoope intends to prosecute and convict him, if he can, and send him to the penitentiary or insane asylum, as may best suit his case.

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.

Pittsburgh Opera House.

Miss Lydia Thompson's benefit last evening was the occasion of a general gathering of her Pittsburgh admirers, the Opera House being crowded to its utmost capacity. Many of the hardest working young men ever seen propping up the Southern wall of the postoffice, stood through the whole performance, evincing approval and gratification. Blue Beard was well done throughout; indeed nothing has been poorly done during the entire week.

Two more performances will conclude the engagement of Miss Thompson. The matinee this afternoon will offer extra attractions. At the evening performance Sinbad and the Heathen Chinee will be given.

On Monday evening Mr. John McCullough, the celebrated California tragedian, will begin his engagement. Much interest is manifested in the appearance here of this artist, whose fame has filled the land. We bespeak for Mr. McCullough a kind welcome on Monday evening, and predict his usual success.

Academy of Music.

"'98, or Under the Gibbet," was repeated at the Academy last evening, to the entire satisfaction of a large audience. At the matinee this afternoon, the "New Magdalen" will be played. In the evening "'98" will be given for the last time.

Sharpley, Sheridan & Mack begin an engagement at the Academy on Monday evening.

Trimble's Varieties.

The ladies' matinee commences here at half past two o'clock. The usual additional attractions will be furnished to-night.

Masonic Hall.

Prof. Macallister will delight the infantile heart by dealing out one hundred pounds of nice candies at the matinee this afternoon. In the evening, one hundred useful presents will be given away. The performance, as every one knows, is of a high order of excellence.

Theodore Thomas Concerts.

Those who have neglected to secure places for the Thomas concerts, at Library Hall, on Monday and Tuesday evenings, should call at H. Kleber & Bro.'s, 122 Wood street, and do so.

Salvini at Library Hall.

The sale of seats for the performances of the great Italian tragedian, Salvini, at Library Hall on Friday and Saturday evenings of next week, will begin at Hale's music store, 103 Smithfield street, on Tuesday morning next.

PRESBYTERIAL COMMISSION.

Installation of a Pastor in the Fourth Presbyterian Church.

According to appointment a Commission of the Presbytery of Pittsburgh, clothed with Presbyterial power, met last evening in the Fourth Presbyterian Church, corner of Penn avenue and Twenty-fourth street, and installed Rev. R. R. Moore as pastor of the congregation. Rev. S. J. Fisher, of Swissvale, presided, and preached the sermon from Acts 24 chap., and 25th verse. The discourse was carefully written and delivered with much force and emphasis. After sermon, Mr. Fisher proposed the usual questions to the pastor-elect and the people, and led in the installation prayer. The Rev. R. Lea, of Lawrenceville, then delivered the charge to the pastor, to whom he gave some solemn counsel which was couched in plain but expressive language. The Rev. John Gillespie followed in a charge to the people, whom he earnestly requested and enjoined to fulfill the vows they had taken, and defend, honor and support their pastor.

Rev. John Douglass then led in the concluding prayer, after which the congregation was dismissed with the benediction by Rev. R. R. Moore, the newly installed pastor. At the close of the services the congregation filed in front of the pulpit and gave the right hand of fellowship to their pastor.

Notwithstanding the rain there was quite a respectable congregation present, who listened with great interest, apparently, to the sermon and the addresses. The Fourth church have received their new pastor very cordially, and are full of hope for a prosperous future.

CITY MATTERS IN BRIEF.

CITY COUNCILS will meet on Monday next in regular session.

H. S. A. STEWART, W. J. Kountz, J. R. Whitaker and C. M. Fay, of this city, are all registered in St. Louis.

THE Gas Committee of Allegheny Councils held a meeting last evening but transacted no business of public interest.

ONE Alderman of the South Side is prosecuted before another for the larceny by bailee of one and three quarter dollars.

JOHN JENNINGS of hardscrabble charges his son Patrick Jennings with incorrigibility. Alderman McMasters will attend to the case.

THE fourth course of sermons on the Christian Virtues, will be given by Rev. Dr. Spalding, of St. Peter's church, Grant and Diamond streets, on Sunday evening next, November 9th, 1873.

MRS. Josephine Yost, corner Cherry alley and Fifth avenue, drew the tea set last evening; and Henry Reitzel, of 213 Wylie street, the silver hunting case watch.

FOUR hundred Mormons, principally from England, and Wales, arrived here yesterday, by the Pennsylvania Central, and proceeded west by the Pan Handle route. The train consisted of twelve passenger cars.

ARCHIBALD PILLOW, ESQ, was yesterday appointed, by the District Court, guardian ad litem of the minor children of George Kaiser, in the matter of the partition of the estate of George Remaley, deceased, late of East Deer township.

THERE are over one hundred cases in the Criminal Court yet undisposed of. The jurors now in attendance have been notified that they will be required for another week, by which time it is thought the jury trials will be finished.

THE Mechanicsburg Independent Journal of Thursday publishes the following distressingly indefinite item: "An elopement on Monday night of one of our young misses and an agent from Pittsburgh created some little excitement."

THE alarm of fire yesterday morning, at nine o'clock, was caused by the burning of a portion of the roof of a house belonging to the Edgerton estate, No. 922 Williams street, Twenty-fifth ward. The damage, which was slight, is covered by insurance.

THE People's Monthly for November has just been issued. It is a very handsome publication, colored cover pages having been added. The wood engravings, of which there are six, are finely designed and well printed. The reading matter, original and selected, is up to the usual high standard of the Monthly. Charles McKnight & Co. are the publishers.

PATRICK SCHWARTZ, a boy in the employ of Mr. Donnelly, contractor, had a leg broken, Thursday evening, while playing near the Relief engine house. A physician was called, but he declined to reduce the fracture because no one was responsible for the bill. The boy was not attended to until yesterday morning, when he was sent to Passavant's hospital.

THE New York Express notes a reduction on the prices before the panic of four cents per pound on smoked hams, two cents on fresh pork, two cents on corned beef, four cents on pork sausages, two cents on lard, two cents on Bologna sausages, ditto on tripe, lamb and mutton, three cents on butter, one cent on cheese, four cents on turkies, seven cents on chickens and two cents on butter. Our Pittsburgh provision dealers have doubtless reduced their prices to suit the times, and it would bring them custom to advertise the fact.

Boys' Gambling House.

Officer Trimble, together with a posse of police, yesterday evening arrested nine boys in a cellar room on Second street, near the Point. The names of the boys, who are from fourteen to fifteen years of age, are James, Patrick and John Duffy, Michael Morrison, John Cunningham, Fred. Maloney, John Kearney, James Murray and John Donohue. The statement of the officer is that the boys rent the cellar room from officer McEnally for five dollars per month, and that gambling is carried on there. The boys deny the charge and say that they have been using the place for a reading room and that no cards were handled there.

Pure Medicinal Liquors.

In purchasing an article for medicinal purposes, it is a matter of the first importance that it should be perfectly pure and of the best quality. Inferior articles of medicines are not only dangerous, but they do not perform what is expected; consequently, the best are the cheapest. With the above facts in view, our stock of liquors for medicinal use are the best that it is possible to obtain, and we specially recommend the following:

Very choice old Otard Brandy, pale.
Fine Martell and Pinet Brandies.
Extra choice Topaz Sherry Wine.
Pure Juice Port, very fine.
Dutch East India Company Gin.
Old Rye Whisky (Gilt Edge), finest in the market.
Fine Madeira Wine and old Jamaica Rum.
Catawba Wine, still.
Claret wine, fine grade.

All of the above goods we guarantee of a pure vintage, and unsurpassed for quality and flavor. Call at McClarran & McKennan's Drug stores, 8 Market street, and opposite Postoffice.

Another Victory for the Howe Scales.

At the great Southern Exposition, just held at Macon, Georgia, the Improved Howe and the Fairbanks Scales were in competition, and the first premium over all others as the best and most accurate scales was awarded to the Howe.

At all the recent fairs and expositions where other makers have ventured to compete the "Howe" has uniformly come off victorious, which will explain their failure to take up the gauntlet so boldly thrown down by the Howe agents at the Chicago Exposition—challenging the scale makers of the world to compete for seven gold medals. In this vicinity the "Howe" is rapidly superseding all other makes, and stands confessed as the best, most sensitive, accurate and durable scale of modern times.

The agent here, Mr. W. A. McClurg, is in daily receipt of the most flattering testimonials of its merits, and invites a personal examination at his warehouse, 63 Wood street, where some 300 varieties, adapted to any use, may be seen.

Another Change.

The boot and shoe establishment of Mr. A. Hartung, located at No. 93 Federal street, Allegheny, has been removed to No. 58 Federal street, one square below the railroad depot. The many friends of Mr. Hartung will be pleased to learn that the change in location will not change his style of business, as he purposes manufacturing and selling none but first class goods, and nothing misrepresented. He keeps constantly on hand Butt's celebrated goods. Call and see him.

Removal.

Mr. James O'Hanlon, the well known grocer and produce merchant, has removed to No. 66 Federal street, Allegheny, where he will be glad to meet his old customers, and all who wish to purchase choice and select groceries.

Queensware, Fall Stock.

Buyers will serve their own interests by calling at No. 100 Wood street before purchasing elsewhere. Best goods at fair prices.

RICHARD E. BREED & CO.

To Save Time and Trouble

Deposit your money at the Farmers and Mechanics Bank, South Side, where you can draw it without previous notice.

The New Colonnade Hotel,

Philadelphia, Pa., is in the vicinity of several METHODIST CHURCHES.

Cheap Books.

MR. PRATT, is selling good books at about ONE-THIRD REGULAR PRICES—at McIlwaines' Auction Rooms. Call to-day and see the largest and finest stock ever opened in Pittsburgh.

The Remington the Best.

The Remington Sewing Machine runs almost noiselessly; it makes a perfect stitch alike on both sides; it cannot do bad work or get out of repair; it is certain in its operation and can be operated by anybody; and it will do more kinds of work with less trouble than any Machine now before the people. To be satisfied of the truth of these assertions, call at the agency of the company and examine it. Its wonderful simplicity, and the perfection of its work, will commend it to any one who knows what a machine should be.

The Voice of Vienna

has declared in favor of the new Wilson Sewing Machines, as the best made, and the best operating machines. Lee S. Smith, General Agent, 14 Sixth street. Call.
